NUMBER 49

Sad Accident of Floyd Maxwell.

Floyd Maxwell, son of Frank Maxwell, age eleven years, happened to a very serious accident on last Monday. He was in a strip of clover where they were mowing and the machine was making the last round, when the blade struck his leg just above the ankle severing it entirely from the body. The little fellow showed great nerve and wanted to ride home alone, a distance of one and a half mile, but the father holding his limb to prevent bleeding carried him, and hastily summoned Mrs. Cole of Loretto and Stuckard of Leoma. It was necessary to amputate more of the limb and the little fellow is now doing nicely. Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell reside on Shoal creek.

Adelsdorf Goes After Catalog House

Rousing Booster Speech Makes Hit in West Tennessee and Kentucky

"Your home merchant buys a large stock of goods; he opens up a large store; he pays state, county and city taxes for the privilege of doing business. These mail order houses do not pay one cent of taxes to your state, county or city."

"This question of patronizing mail order houses is a vital one—it is with you my dear people, to make your town a live one or a dead one. Do you realize what this means? Every dollar sent away to these mail order houses will never return to you—it is gone forever. Your city, your town, your native state is this much loser, and, on the other hand, if you will spend the same dollar with your home merchant it is left in your community and naturally in time will come back to you."

"It lies with you, my good people, to correct this great evil. If you have been sending away to these mail order houses for your goods stop it and stop it at once, for if you keep on sending away it is only a question of time before your stores will get smaller and your home merchant will buy less goods until finally you will force him out of business and he will quit or he will move away to a live town."

CASH IN ADVANCE

"Now, let us see who is your friend, the mail order houses or your home merchant? Who buys your produce? Who buys your butter and eggs? It is your home merchant. You would not think of sending them to a mail order house, would you? They would laugh at you. Who builds your churches and schoolhouses or any other improvements that you may make in your city? Do these mail order houses ever contribute one cent toward them? No; it is your home merchant who, through his taxes and personal contributions, does this. The mail order houses do not care anything for you or for your town. All they want is your cash, and they want that in advance."

"You say you can buy goods cheaper from these mail order houses. That is not so. Ninety-nine times out of 100 your home merchant will sell you the same articles for even less money. Oh, yes, it looks good in pictures, but when you get the merchandise, which you have to pay for in advance, you are nearly always disappointed."

I have cultivated blackberries for everybody, now ready for shipment, $2.50 for crate of six gallons. Send cash with order. Respectfully, Horace Rainey, Columbia, Tenn.

SPECIAL BONUS OFFER

It Holds Good Until the First Count on Wednesday, June 18th, When Votes will be Counted and a $10 Gold Piece Will be Awarded to the Lady Having the Most Votes.

The big prize voting contest is attracting more attention every day, so as more incentive to all contestants we have decided to give the following votes:

For every seven new subscriptions 4,000 extra, making a total of $2,000. These subscriptions need not be for one party for seven years, or for seven different people for one year, but must be new subscriptions for seven years and must be handed in all at one time.

For every seven renewal subscriptions, 3,000 extra, making a total of 6,500. These may be for seven different people or all for one, but must be handed in all at one time.

The above special offer will hold good until the first count on June 18, at which time votes will be counted by the judges who will award the $10 in gold to the contestant who receives the largest number of votes up to the first count. The ballot box will close promptly at 7:30 p.m. on Wednesday, June 18.

Remember the $10 in gold to be given to the contestant having the highest number of votes on June 18th is the special prize offered by the Democrat. It will in no way effect the standing of the winner of the contest.

A few contestants thought that the winning of the $10 would effect their votes for the piano. It will not. All votes found in the box on June 18th will be included in the final count, which will decide the winners of the piano and other prizes.

Remember that each subscription you receive—either new, renewal or back—will get a certain number of votes with each year and these votes with an extra bonus vote also.

All votes to be counted must be in by 7:30 o'clock Wednesday, June 18. The keys to the ballot box, which is now installed in the sanctum, are in the hands of Prof. Everett O. Coffman who will have charge of locking and unlocking the ballot box at the time of the count. The judges are honest men of good standing in the community and will have charge of the prizes.

The following names have been suggested to act as awarding committees and count the ballots, and if no objections are offered they will constitute the committee: Judge R. B. Williams, Prof. Joe Sims, Prof. E. O. Coffman.

Misses Kathleen, Dorothy and Dorris Yokely will leave this week to spend the summer with their uncle, Rev. Freeman and family, at Jackson.

RAYMER-YOUNG

On Tuesday evening of last week, J. H. Raymer and Miss Elsie Young were married at Jasper, Tenn. The fair bride is the youngest daughter of M. B. Young, business associate of the editor at Mt. Pleasant.

The marriage came quite as a surprise, being the culmination of a brief but beautiful romance. The groom is a young business man of Bridgeport, Ala., having the confidence and esteem of the people for his energy and sterling worth. He is to be congratulated on winning one of the sweetest, fairest flowers in all this glorious "dimple on the face of the good old earth." I shall greatly miss her on press days, when she has heretofore always come to help "get the paper out," and her cherry laugh and happy unflinching good humor made radiant splashes in the rather murky atmosphere of the print-shop, like laughing bits of summer skies, shining amid the storm clouds. Hers is a happy helpful nature indeed in its budding promise. We wish for her, and for the fortunate fellow who has won her love and life, many, many happy days. We warn him now that he must be good to Elsie, or all the demons of printshop will haunt and harass him forever. But if he shall only love and cherish her, as who would not, then all the good spirits of the press will ever walk the earth to bless and prosper him in all his days. Young friends we wish you well.

Election Officers For Lawrence

New Board Claim Right to Name Commission for County. Good Men Selected

The members of the State Election Commission elected under the law passed by a quorumless House, met in Nashville last week and elected county boards for sixty-one counties. The new board (if the law is valid) is W. E. Cannon, Iron City, Ind. W. English and Joseph Schade, Lawrenceburg. The right of these gentlemen to serve will depend entirely on whether or not the law is held valid by the supreme court, when it takes up the question at its meeting next December. Personally these gentlemen are most excellent citizens and if elections are to be in their hands we have no doubt that they will be honestly and fairly conducted. As to politics, neither the independent democrats nor the Hooper republicans will have representation.

For catalogue or information pertaining to Lawrence County High School address D. C. STUNKARD, Sewanee, Tenn.

The district singing convention will meet with the Cedar Hill Class, on the 5th Saturday and Sunday in June 1913. An entertainment on Saturday evening and dinner on the ground Sunday. All singers are urged to come. Homes will be provided for those coming from a distance. Everybody come.
